

Building a bike park

Hagen Hopkins/Canmore Leader

From left, Chad Dundas Smith, 13, Alex Platt, 13, and younger brother Sam Platt, 11, lend a hand to build the new mountain bike skills park at Millennium Park, which was completed on Saturday. Another new skills park is currently being constructed at the base of Benchlands Trail. Volunteers are welcome to lend a hand every day after 10 a.m. until completion, expected to be this Saturday, Oct. 11.
